LIBRARY PLAN FOR NEXT YEAR

THE NEW DESIGN was presented last week at the meeting of the Port Credit Village Project (PCVP) in the Texaco Room of the Port Credit Library. After years of concept discussions and planning meetings, we now know what the place is going to look like by the end of next year. With an animated, 3D walkthrough, the design was presented by Bob Goyeche of Rounthwaite Dick and Hadley Architects Inc (RDH). Mayor McCallion was present along with Paul Mitcham, Commissioner of Community Services, Janis Alton, Chair of the PCVP and other executives of the board. See story inside (pages 8-9).
